1. This report includes: (a) all distance education credit hours, including Independent Study (formerly correspondence), on-line web courses, and group based study;
   (b) all courses taught off-campus with stipend from other than faculty or school resources;
   (c) all "on-load" credit hours taught during the summer session.
   This report excludes credit hours declared as "Challenge for Credit".
2. An asterisk (*) indicates that the number of credit hours were below 100 in either year. Changes in faculties containing less than 100 credit hours can show abnormally large differences, therefore these are not reported.
3. The Department of Agricultural Economics & Farm Management changed its name to the Department of Agribusiness & Agricultural Economics in 2001-2002.
4. Undergraduate program in Architecture was revised in 2000-2001. Admissions to Interior Design ended and students must now enter Environmental Design to do a foundation program. For the stated reason, percent change is not applicable.
5. Catholic Studies and Global Political Economy new in 2001-2002.
6. The Asper School of Business was formerly reported as the Faculty of Management.
7. Logistics and Supply Chain Management new in 2003-2004.
8. The Department of Civil & Geological Engineering changed its name to the Department of Civil Engineering in 2001-2002.
9. Faculty of Environment new in 2003. Prior to 2003, the Department of Geography was reflected under the Faculty of Arts and the Departments of Environmental Science and Geological Sciences were reflected under the Faculty of Science.
   Decrease in credit hours mainly in first year courses. Faculty of Environment courses no longer satisfy some of the B.A. and B.Sc. degree requirements.
10. The departments of Environmental Science and Geography combined to form the Department of Environment and Geography.
11. The Department of Foods & Nutrition changed its name to the Department of Human Nutritional Sciences in 2001-2002.
12. Includes credit hours from the accelerated program run during the summer session.
