

Micro-Diploma in Workplace Health and Safety

Build on your experience and boost your activist or professional development with a Micro-Diploma in Workplace Health and Safety (WHS) from the Labour Studies Program at the University of Manitoba.

Whether you are looking to be more effective at promoting health and safety as a union member, hoping to strengthen your knowledge and skills in your chosen profession, considering a fresh start and a new career direction or preparing to embark on an academic career, the Micro-Diploma in Workplace Health and Safety is a great option.

TO COMPLETE THE MICRO-DIPLOMA IN WHS, INDIVIDUALS MUST SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING THREE COURSES:

- LABR 3050 ISSUES IN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION; AND
- LABR 3060 WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY; AND
- LABR 3070 LABOUR RELATIONS AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY LAW.

To be accessible to individuals who are working full-time, the program intends to offer one of these courses in a weekday evening timeslot in each of the three terms of the academic year, Fall, Winter and Summer. LABR 3050 is planned to be offered in Summer 2023, and the other two courses in Fall 2023 and Winter 2024. This will continue moving forward but not necessarily in this order. Please note that LABR 3050, unlike the other two courses, requires some prior knowledge of occupational health and safety.
