

Intention to receive the Graduate Specialization in Aging

Starting in the 2017–2018 academic year, the Centre on Aging is requesting students who wish to pursue the Graduate Specialization in Aging (GSA) in addition to their graduate studies at the University of Manitoba, complete this form to better keep in contact with interested students.

Complete the form in full and return it to Rachel.Ines@umanitoba.ca. If at any point a student decides he/she is no longer are interested in gaining the extra credentials for the GSA, contact Rachel to update your status.

Student name

Student UM email

Student UM ID

Degree program

Master program

PhD program

Home Faculty/College/Department

Graduate program type

Thesis based

Advanced practicum/placement

Expected date of graduation

Students who wish to pursue the GSA must have a current Centre on Aging Research Affiliate as either their Advisor or Committee member to meet one of the eligibility criteria for the GSA.

Advisor or Committee member(s)

Advisor or committee member's home Faculty

Title of thesis/major project (if known)

Provide a brief summary of how your thesis/major project relates to aging

Contacting the Centre upon completion of requirements

Reminder to all students, you are still responsible to contact the Centre on Aging upon completing the requirements for the GSA.

Once a student's requirements have been verified, Centre staff will make the necessary arrangements for a student to receive the GSA.