

Hanley Memorial Lecture Series: Past Lectures

Year	Speaker	Role	Topic
2015	The Most Rev. J. Michael Miller, CSB	Archbishop of Vancouver	The Future of the Universal Church & the Place of the Local Churches in that Future
2014	Catherine E. Clifford	Saint Paul University	Pope Francis & Deepening Catholic Ecumenical Commitment: Learning from Recognizing Other Christian Churches
2012/13	Gerard Mannion, PhD	University of San Diego, CA	A Teaching Church that Learns: The Art of Magisterium
2011	Francis X. Clooney, SJ	Harvard Divinity School	A God Real Enough to be Absent
2010	Lisa Sowle Cahill, PhD	University of Chicago Divinity School	Catholic Bioethics & Social Justice
2009	Fr. Michael Paul Gallagher, SJ		Our Religious Imagination
2008	Roger S. Gottlieb, PhD	Worcester Polytechnic Institute	Religious Environmentalism, Ecological Democracy, & the Problem of Evil
2007	A. Rashied Omar, PhD	Joan B. Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies (University of Notre Dame)	Islam & the Challenge of Peace
2006	Sandra Schneiders, IHM	Jesuit School of Theology, Berkley	The Bible as the Word of God
2005	Achiel Peelman, omi	St. Paul University	The Traditional Spirituality of Canada's First Nations peoples & Christianity: A Commitment to Dialogue
2004	Joseph Komonchak	Catholic University of America	Vatican II & Beyond: Thinking about the Church
2003	Elizabeth Johnson, csj	Fordham University	Exploration into God
2002	Mary Boys, snjm	Union Theological Seminary	Questions that Touch on the Heart of our Faith: Judaism as a New Catechism for Christians
2001	Walter J. Burghardt, SJ	Georgetown University	Justice 2001: A Fresh Perspective
2000	Eamon Duffy, PhD	Divinity College, Cambridge University, England	Catholicism & its Past
1999	Luke Timothy Johnson	Candler School of Theology, Emory University	Jesus Then & Now: A Consideration of History & Faith
1998	Thomas Groome	Boston College	Educating For Life: From the Depth Structures of Catholic Spirituality, Drawing A Vision for Every Teacher & Parent
1997	Daniel Callahan	The Hastings Center & Sidney Callahan, Mercy College	Ethics, Pluralism, & Modern Medicine
1996	John Finnis	Oxford University & Notre Dame University	Public Reasons: Re-reading Aquinas on Some Strategic Questions in Ethics & Politics
1995/96	J. Bryan Hehir	Harvard University	The Social Character of Catholic Faith, Teaching, & Policy
1994	Elizabeth Schüssler Fiorenza	Harvard University	Toward a Discipleship of Equals
1993	Robert Alter	University of California, Berkeley	The Literary Study of the Bible
1992	Jon Sobrino, SJ	Central American University, El Salvador	Jesus Christ Liberator: A Christology of Liberation
1991	Michael J. Buckley, SJ	Notre Dame University	Catholicism & the Rise of Modern Atheism
1990	Walter Principe, csb	Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies, Toronto	History & the Teaching Church
1989	Joan A. Chittister, OSB	Mount St. Benedict Priory	Christian Response to the Winds of Change
1988	James M. Gustafson	Emory University	Varieties of Moral Discourse
1987	Petro B. Bilaniuk	University of Toronto	Preparing for the Millennium or a Bimillennium of Christianity in Ukraine
1986	Avery Dulles, SJ	Catholic University of America	The Extraordinary Synod of Bishops in Rome in 1985
1985	Raymond E. Brown, SS	Union Theological Seminary	What Modern Biblical Research Means for Catholic Life & Doctrine
1984	Richard A. McCormick, SJ	Georgetown University	Continuing Problems in Bioethics: An Overview
1983	John Noonan	University of California, Berkeley	Moral Directives from the Church: How should they affect civil society?
1982	Francis G. Morrissey, OMI	Saint Paul University	A Shift from a Church of the Clergy to a Church of the Faithful
1981	Johannes B. Metz	University of Munster	Religion & Politics
1980	Brian Tierney	Cornell University	Religion & Western Constitutional Thought