

DEPARTMENT OF ENTOMOLOGY

Fall 2020 Seminar Schedule

Seminars will be held ONLINE (Platform to be determined).

Chatting and announcements start at 10:00 am, seminars start at 10:10 am.

- Tuesday, Sep 22 Dr. Robyn Underwood, Department of Entomology, Penn State University. "The importance of management to the health of honey bees"
- Tuesday, Oct 6 Dr. Maxime Damien, Department of Entomology, University of Manitoba. "Flower diversity effects, from parasitoids life history to conservation biological control during winter"
- Tuesday, Oct 20 Mr. Joel Gardner, Department of Entomology, University of Manitoba. "Revision of the Lasioglossum (Dialictus) (Hymenoptera: Halictidae) of the western Nearctic"
- Tuesday, Nov 3 Ms. Emily Hanuschuk, Department of Entomology, University of Manitoba. "The effects of human-driven landscape change on wild bee communities in southern Manitoba"
- Tuesday, Nov 17 Dr. Don Henne, Department of Natural Resources Management, Lakehead University. "Zombie ants, zebra chips, and oakworms: reflections on a career in entomology...so far"
- Tuesday, Dec 1 Dr. Paul Galpern, Department of Biological Sciences, University of Calgary. "The merits of messy fields: linking landscape complexity and beneficial arthropods in Alberta croplands". DEGSA Invited Speaker, Endowment Fund Speaker Series. Host: Emily Hanuschuk.

To be added to the seminar distribution list and get updates and links for the seminars, please contact Kateryn Rochon (2020-2021) kateryn.rochon@umanitoba.ca