I-COURSE DESCRIPTION

The history of South America in the post-World War II period has been characterized by profound political, economic, and social changes. The emergence of populist and revolutionary regimes that mobilized vast sectors of their societies in the 1950-1970 period were followed by brutal military regimes in the 1960s-1980s, neoliberal governments in the 1980s-1990s, and new social movements and popular alternatives in the 2000s.

Focusing on the history of Argentina, Brazil, and Chile, this course explores those dramatic changes by paying attention to several interrelated processes:
- the location of South America within the broader regional and world contexts
- the influence of the Cold War
- the changing relationship between the state and different social actors, as a response to shifts in economic, social and political conditions and alignments
- the recent and ongoing mobilization of new social movements and their challenges in new national and global contexts

II-REQUIREMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS, AND EVALUATION

The class will meet three times a week on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Lectures on each country and specific period will be followed by discussions based on assigned readings. Please make sure to check the schedule below for the dates of lectures and discussions. Given that this is an upper-level undergraduate course, active participation is expected and attendance for discussion sessions is mandatory. Your final grade in the course will result from:

- Three five/six-page papers, worth 45% (15% each)
- A ten-page, take-home exam paper, worth 35% of the final grade.
- Attendance and participation, worth 20% of the final grade

All written assignments will require the comparative analysis of different cases. Please note that late and/or e-mailed papers will not be accepted, as students are responsible for bringing a printed copy for the sessions when papers are due. In addition to handing in a hard-copy of all written assignments, students are required to submit a copy of the paper electronically through UMLearn (as a Word document). The file name for the document should be as follows: SURNAME Given name Assign # HIST 3020.

I will strictly follow the University’s regulations regarding plagiarism, cheating and impersonation found in in the section on “Academic Integrity” of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar, and Catalog and the Faculty of Arts regulation (online at http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities_integrity.html) which reads:

The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty.

The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication.

The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

Evaluation of work will be provided by the voluntary withdrawal (VW) date, Friday, March 16th, 2018. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them. Uncollected term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction.

Student resources

You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/

The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/).

All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website: http://umanitoba.ca/student/studentlife/index.html

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.

Student Counseling Centre

Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC offers crisis services as well as counseling. http://umanitoba.ca/student/counselling/index.html
Student Support Case Management

Contact the Student Support Case Management team if you are concerned about yourself or another student and don’t know where to turn. SSCM helps connect students with on and off campus resources, provides safety planning, and offers other supports, including consultation, educational workshops, and referral to the STATIS threat assessment team. http://umanitoba.ca/student/case-manager/index.html

University Health Service

Contact UHS for any medical concerns, including mental health problems. UHS offers a full range of medical services to students, including psychiatric consultation. http://umanitoba.ca/student/health/

Student Advocacy

Contact Student Advocacy if you want to know more about your rights and responsibilities as a student, have questions about policies and procedures, and/or want support in dealing with academic or discipline concerns. http://umanitoba.ca/student/advocacy

UM History Student Association (UMHiSA)

UMHiSA is a history undergraduate student run organization that seeks to establish a sense of community for students studying all facets of history, and provide support for them in their academic career. Students interested in fun times, spirited debate, new opportunities, a community of like-minded students, or all of the above, check out UMHiSA on our facebook group https://www.facebook.com/groups/422932261087799/ or emailing umhisau@gmail.com.
