

_____ has applied for admission to the Graduate Program in Psychology at the University of Manitoba, and you have been asked to support that application.

Please consider the candidate's preparedness for graduate study in psychology and comment on the applicant's breadth and depth of knowledge, industriousness and perseverance, interpersonal skills, oral and written communication skills, and qualities of thought (e.g., judgment, logical abilities, and originality). If you wish, you may append a letter.

COMMENTS:

Please provide a quantitative rating from 0 to 10 of the applicant's overall suitability for graduate training using the following anchors.

- 10 This student is the most outstanding candidate I have recommended in years. He/She will make a significant contribution to the field of Psychology.
- 7 This student is an exceptional candidate who will make a strong record in course work and be among the "better" students in the program.
- 4 This student will likely be an average graduate student. He/She will probably finish the degree requirements with some possibility of not doing so. He/She will probably not stand out among his/her peers though some potential to do so exists.
- 0 This student is/was an undergraduate student whose chances of success in graduate school are only 50:50. He/She is a marginal student who, even if he/she may complete the requirements, will likely rank below the peer average.
