Course Description

(Formerly 053.255) This half-course surveys a broad array of landforms in the world and the geomorphic processes responsible for their creation. Attention is strongly focused on those landform processes originating at the Earth's surface. Prerequisite: GEOG 1200 or GEOG 1201 (053.120) (C), or GEOG 1280 or GEOG 1281 (053.128) (C) or GEOG 1290 or GEOG 1291 (053.129), or permission of department head.

Course Goals

This course surveys important concepts in geomorphology, focusing on examples of landforms and processes that do contribute, or have contributed in the past, to the appearance of the Canadian landscape. With its immense size, Canada has a wide variety of landscapes in which tectonic, weathering, mass wasting, fluvial, glacial, periglacial, coastal, and karst processes are currently active. Past events also need to be considered to fully understand the Earth's surface landforms.

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the important concepts of landforms and geomorphic processes.
- Describe examples of landforms and processes that do contribute, or have contributed in the past to the appearance of the Canadian Landscape.
- Acquire the basic technical skills required in geomorphology, including the mastery of vocabulary, and the ability to find relevant literature and resources in the library and on the internet.

Method of Evaluation

Students will be evaluated via two midterm tests (2 x 20% = 40%), one final Exam (40%), 1 assignment (25%).

Midterm Test I (Part A): Oct. 11; 50 minutes (20% of course value)

Midterm Test II (Part B): Nov. 8; 50 minutes (20% of course value)

Final Exam (Part C - cumulative): TBA (40% of course value)
Examination Period: Dec. 9 - 20, 2019

Assignment: Due Nov. 29, 2019 (20% of course value) by 4:00 PM

**Additional information provided regarding assignment, including grading rubric on UM Learn)

PeerWise: potential 2% bonus (see note below on access and bonus mark calculation).

The Grade distribution for this course is as follows:

A+: 90% or above (Exceptional)	C+: 65 - 69% (Satisfactory)
A: 80 - 89% (Excellent)	C: 60 - 64% (Adequate)
B+: 75 - 79% (Very Good)	D: 50 - 59% (Marginal)
B: 70 - 74% (Good)	F: ≤ 49% (Failure)

Note: Students are not permitted to submit “additional” assignments in addition to the regular term tests and final exam to improve their grade. The grading scheme will only be adjusted for documented, extenuating circumstances.

Test and Final Exam Format

- May include multiple choice, short and long answer questions, concept sketches/diagrams will be based on lectures, assigned readings, videos, class discussions and activities, and the corresponding readings in the course textbook.
- In all tests and exams, NO unauthorized materials are permitted. Unauthorized materials may include, but are not limited to: dictionaries, notes, books, textbooks, cellphones, smart watches, or any device capable of storage and/or wireless communication.
- Students are responsible for appropriately concealing their test and exam answers in order to prevent copying by other students. Allowing another student to copy off of your test/exam is considered cheating, and therefore academic misconduct. Academic misconduct charges will be pursued if a student violates these instructions

- Please consult policy regarding Academic Integrity below.

Policy Regarding Missed Midterm Tests

- No “makeup” or “re-write” tests will be offered. Students who miss a midterm test will have their final exam reweighted to account for the missing test only if appropriate medical/professional documentation has been provided by email (to your instructor) within 48 hours of the missed midterm test. Failure to provide this documentation within 48 hours will result in a grade of zero (0) being assigned for the missed midterm test.
- For example, if a student misses 1 midterm and provides documentation within 48 hours, the final exam will be reweighted to 60% instead of the original 40% (20% + 40% = 60%).
- Medical/professional documentation MUST be legible and state that you were UNABLE to write the midterm test due to a medical circumstance on the day of the midterm test or exam. A note that you “saw a doctor” is NOT considered medical documentation.
- Please note that reasonable reasons for missing a test or exam do NOT include: vacations, long weekends away, other course work, other tests or quizzes on the same day etc..
- If in doubt about what is an appropriate reason for missing a test exam, please ask the instructor prior to the test or due date via email. If you have not received a response from the instructor via email, students are highly encouraged to talk to the instructor prior to the test/online quiz/exam. Once a test/quiz/exam is started, regardless of the outcome, students will not be offered a makeup test.

Policy Regarding Missed/Deferred Final Exam

- If you know in advance that you cannot take the final examination you must fill in a request for a deferred examination with your own faculty office.
- Students may request a deferred examination(s) on the grounds that they are unable to write said examination(s) due to:
  - participation in an inter-university, provincial, inter-provincial, national or international scholastic or athletic event;
  - religious obligations; or
  - a medical condition.
- Students requesting a deferred examination due to a known condition as listed above must file an application normally twenty (20) working days prior to the day of the scheduled examination with the advising office of the faculty, school, or academic unit (including University 1 or Extended Education) in which they are registered.
- Students who are unable to write an examination due to an unexpected illness must file an application for a deferred examination with their home faculty, setting out the reasons for the deferral. The application must normally be filed within forty-eight (48) hours of the scheduled date of the missed examination or, in a case where more than one examination was missed, within forty-eight (48) hours of the scheduled date of the last examination missed. The application must be accompanied by a medical certificate or otherwise appropriate documentation certifying the reason for the deferral, the inability of the student to write the examination at the regular scheduled time and, where possible, an indication of the period of incapacity. Based on the evidence, the Dean or Director shall decide whether the application is approved. Based on the student’s ongoing incapacity or other exceptional circumstances a deferral may be granted to a student who files an application after the forty-eight (48) hour period has lapsed.
- The Department of Environment and Geography schedules deferred exams for this course once the required paper work has been received from the student’s home faculty.

- Students will be notified by the Department of Environment and Geography via email (U of M accounts only) when the deferred exam is scheduled.
- Deferred examinations will normally take place within 30 working days from the end of the examination series from which the examination was deferred. Writing a make-up test at your convenience may not be an option. For more information: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/records/finals/682.html>
- Students must bring student ID or photo identification to the deferred exam.
- It is the student's responsibility to communicate via their U of M email to make arrangements for the deferred exam.
