

Finding Journals at the University of Manitoba Libraries (UML)

■ About journals

Journals, magazines, newspapers, and serials are terms you will become accustomed to once you begin your library research. All of these publications are called periodicals because they are issued on a regular or "periodic" basis: daily, once a week or 4 to 12 times a year.

Periodicals are usually separated into two major groups:

Popular journals	Scholarly/refereed journals
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Usually published once per week or once per month and include magazines. • Geared toward the general public. • Articles are generally shorter. • Cover a wide range of topics. • Broadly summarize research and current issues. • Contain many advertisements and photographs. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Usually published on a monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly basis, although several scholarly periodicals in the sciences are published weekly. • Evaluated by and geared toward scholars, researchers or professionals. • Contain articles with an in-depth analysis explaining the research methodology and research findings and have bibliographies. • Usually sponsored by an academic or professional organization. • Contain few photographs or advertisements.
Examples of popular journals: Macleans, National Geographic, Newsweek, Psychology Today, Time.	Examples of scholarly/refereed journals: Canadian Journal of Anthropology, Clinical Psychology and Psychotherapy, Education and Urban Society.

■ How to find a journal in the Libraries

1. Select Periodical Title search option from the drop-down menu.
2. Enter your search words in the search window, and click on the Search button.

Select Periodical Title (Contains these words) if you know some of the words in the title of the journal. Type the words in the search window and click on the Search button. For example, try searching "journal psychology." Do not use word "journal" unless it is part of the title.

Select Periodical Title (Starts with these words) if you know the exact title of the journal. Type the title in the search window and click on the Search button. If the title begins, for example, with The quarterly journal of..., omit the initial "the."

Step 3: Select items:

The example search produced 6 titles. Find your journal and click on one of the links:

In this example the current issues of the Canadian Journal of School Psychology are located in the Current Periodicals section of the Elizabeth Dafoe Library where the journals are shelved in alphabetical order by title.

Earlier issues and volumes of the Canadian Journal of School Psychology are located in the Bound Periodicals section on the third floor of the Elizabeth Dafoe Library where the journals are shelved by call number. The call number for this journal is: 370 C16 Jo.

If a volume of a journal has been signed out by another patron, the record displays Checked out instead of Third Floor under the call number of the volume. You may place a request in BISON on checked out volume. To request an item click on Request an issue/volume of this title located on the top right side of the full record display.

NOTE: In some libraries, e.g. Neil John Maclean Health Sciences Library, journals are shelved in alphabetical order by title; hence no call number appears in the holdings.

Step 5: Can't find your journal on the shelf?

If the journal you require is not on the shelf and BISON indicates that it is available:

- Someone in the library may be reading the journal.
- The journal may be in the sorting areas, near the photocopiers or on a shelving cart. Be sure to check these areas before placing a request for the journal.
- The journal may be held at another University of Manitoba library. Check BISON catalogue to determine if your title is available at another University of Manitoba library.
- Place a request for the journal.

Step 6: Looking for an e-journal?

You can look for an e-journal in three ways:

1. Search Citation Linker: Select Citation Linker from the E-Library menu or go to: <http://sfx2.exlibrisgroup.com:9003/umanitoba/cgi/core/citation-linker.cgi>.

In the Journal tab of the Citation Linker type in the exact title of the journal or its standard abbreviation; or in the Article tab type in the title of the article, title of the journal, date, volume, issue, page numbers, and the name of the author. Click on the  button.

2. Search BISON (<http://bison.umanitoba.ca>), as indicated above.

3. Search the e-journals list:

Alphabetically by title: <http://umanitoba.ca/libraries/elibrary/ejournals/alpha.shtml>

By subject: <http://umanitoba.ca/libraries/elibrary/ejournals/subject.shtml>

Step 7: What to do if the Libraries does not have it

If the journal you want is not available at any University of Manitoba library, you can request articles from another library via the University of Manitoba Libraries Document Delivery service. If you have a valid University of Manitoba Libraries' ID card you can place a request using the Patron Request Form: <https://umanitoba.ca/libraries/units/docdel/borrower.ssl.php>.

Before placing a request please read the Document Delivery information page: http://umanitoba.ca/libraries/units/docdel/borrower_info.html. For more information contact Document Delivery staff: <http://umanitoba.ca/libraries/units/docdel/contact.html>.
