

[Revise this letter as needed to send an email request for copyright clearance. Store the permission confirmation letter in your files indefinitely. For more information about copyright, send your question to um.copyright@umanitoba.ca.]

Subject line: Copyright permission request for [Title of graph/image/article/other, year published]

Dear Permissions Manager,

I am requesting permission to include in my [thesis/dissertation/practicum] the following:

Authors or creators of the graph/image/excerpt (year of the work). Title of the graph/image/excerpt. Journal or book or web site the work appears in. ISBN/ISSN/Web address. Publisher. Volume, issue, page numbers.

My thesis, entitled [Title], is part of the requirements needed to graduate from the Faculty of Graduate Studies at the University of Manitoba.

My thesis will be posted electronically and will be accessible for free to a worldwide audience from the University of Manitoba's digital repository called MSpace located at <http://mspace.lib.umanitoba.ca/xmlui/>. I do not expect to receive any commercial profits.

[Describe other ways the work will be used. For example, mention if you will include it in a conference poster or presentation or paper, whether it's for profit or non-profit purposes, etc.]

Please reply to confirm if you are the copyright owner of the work and if permission is granted to use it as described above. If so, I will include a citation and permission statement with the work.

If you do not control the copyright on the above-mentioned work, I would appreciate any contact information you can provide regarding the proper rights holder.

Thank you for your consideration. If you require further information, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

[Your name and contact information]