

TELLING TURTLE ISLAND

An Evening with Storytellers From Around the Continent

TUESDAY, MARCH 31

7PM FLATLANDERS STUDIO 782 MAIN STREET

FLORA ZAHARIA (SIKOTAN), a Kainaiakii from the Blood Reserve of Southern Alberta, lives in Winnipeg. Flora's Mother and Grandparents were instrumental in her love of Kainai traditional legends, which she tells as well as her personal stories.

JOE MCLELLAN is the author of 15 children's books, mostly in the Nanabosho Series published by Pemmican Publications. He is an avid storyteller who has travelled far and wide telling stories.

DOVIE THOMASON is one of the most respected and admired storytellers of her generation. Her ability to craft tales that not only enchant audiences—but also teach invaluable lessons about human nature and Indigenous worldviews—has long made her a beloved contributor to schools, organizations and events around the globe.

Everyone welcome!

This event is free and open to the public and includes a reception

CENTRE FOR CREATIVE WRITING AND ORAL CULTURE
University of Manitoba

For further info, contact:
ccwoc@umanitoba.ca
or 480-1065