

CENTRE FOR CREATIVE WRITING
AND ORAL CULTURE

GRAND OPENING

The Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture

A Unique and Dynamic Space for Creative Writers and Storytellers

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2008 at 4:30 p.m.
University College -- Concourse Lounge (Main Floor)
University of Manitoba Fort Garry Campus

Including an

EXCLUSIVE READING

By the University of Manitoba's 2008 Writer-in-Residence

RODY GORMAN

Rody Gorman is an award-winning poet, editor, lyricist, reviewer, essayist and translator, visiting from Scotland.

The first institute of its kind in Canada, the University of Manitoba's Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture will be home to scholars, students and visiting artists, who wish to collaborate, create new works of textual and verbal art, and study the relationships between written and oral culture.

Please join us for the opening of this unique centre, and

Explore the transformative possibilities of the written and spoken word!

Everyone welcome

For info, contact:
ccwoc@cc.umanitoba.ca