In Search of Hidden History: Uncovering Disability Activism in Late 19th and Early 20th Century Ireland

Dr. Nancy Hansen is Director of the Interdisciplinary Master’s Program in Disability Studies at the University of Manitoba. She obtained a Ph.D. at the University of Glasgow. Her thesis examined the impact of education and social policy on the employment experiences of women with physical disabilities. Her post-doctoral research examined women with disabilities’ access to primary health care. She received an Einstein Research Fellowship to examine Disability Studies and the Legacy of Nazi Eugenics. She is past president of the Canadian Disability Studies Association (CDS A). In June 2006, she was awarded an Ireland-Canada University Foundation Sprott Asset Management Scholarship to examine the history of People with Disabilities in Ireland. Dr. Hansen has been actively involved with various Canadian disability groups for many years.

Sponsored by the Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice

For more information
Please feel free to contact the Mauro Centre at 474.6052 or mauro@umanitoba.ca | umanitoba.ca/mauro_centre

The Arthur V. Mauro Centre, at St. Paul’s College, University of Manitoba, is dedicated to research, education, and outreach to foster global peace and justice. This is a transdisciplinary endeavor that encompasses diverse dimensions of social life at the local, national, and international levels. The Centre is home to the University of Manitoba’s Ph.D. Program in Peace and Conflict Studies.