

Every Smartphone, Voice only and Data only connectivity plans has the applicable roaming rates added by default. Pay-Per-Use feature is charged accordingly and the Flex feature aligns roaming rates based on cellular usage. Roaming with Flex starts each billing period at zero and will flex from tier to tier based on usage and the available tiers within the zone. Users are automatically notified via SMS message that they have used a certain amount of data or that they have reached the capping threshold where their access will be suspended. * You will require special approval for data usage beyond the capped amounts.
