Academic Misconduct is any action or attempted action that undermines Academic Integrity. It can be intentional or unintentional and can include the following:

Plagiarism: to use or pass off as one's own, the writings or ideas of another without acknowledging or crediting the source from which the ideas are taken.

Cheating: circumventing of fair testing procedures or contravention of exam regulations.

Inappropriate collaboration: when a student and any other unauthorized person work together on assessments that are intended to be individual.

Unauthorized content generation: production of academic work, in whole or part, using not explicitly approved or undeclared technological assistance.

Penalties for Academic Misconduct

Penalties may range from receiving a mark of 0 on the assignment, a grade of F in the course, or suspension from the Faculty/UM. A DISC notation will also appear on your transcript.

Declaration

I declare that I will follow the principles of Academic Integrity and all individual work for this course will be my own, unless otherwise referenced, as defined by the University of Manitoba Academic Calendar.
