

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

Fall 2022 Pandemic Accommodations Update

The Faculty of Education has made accommodations to admissions practices effective for the Fall 2022 intake and beyond to ensure that disruptions in education caused by the COVID-19 pandemic do not further disadvantage applicants to the Bachelor of Education (B. Ed) program.

Please note the following accommodations which may be applied to courses completed in the Winter 2020, Summer 2020, Fall 2020, Winter 2021, and Summer 2021 terms only:

- Applicants are permitted to use ONE course grade of D (3 or 6 credits) OR one course grade of Pass, Credit, Satisfactory, or Standing (3 or 6 credits) from a course completed during one of the applicable terms to meet subject requirements (teachable major, teachable minor, and/or breadth) for the B. Ed program.
- Applicants are permitted to drop 3 credit hours of D grades from their Adjusted Grade Point Average (AGPA) calculation if the D grade falls within the most recent 30 credit hours and the course was completed in one of the applicable terms.
 - All courses within the most recent 30 graded credit hours will be included in the AGPA calculation except when 3 credit hours of D grades completed in one of the applicable terms have been dropped from the calculation.
 - When an applicant has a D grade excluded from the most recent 30 credit hours, the AGPA calculation will include additional coursework until 30 graded credit hours is reached.
 - Courses graded F or FAIL which fall within the most recent 30 credit hours will still be included in the AGPA calculation.

It is important to review this document in conjunction with the Applicant Information Bulletin to ensure that you have understood all admission requirements and policies for the intake for which you apply.
