

FOOD FOR THOUGHT CO-OP INFO SESSION

OCT
03

NOON | OCTOBER 3RD

CENTRE SPACE
JOHN A. RUSSELL BUILDING
FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE

PRESENTED BY CORRINE KLEKTA &
KURT ESPERSEN-PETERS

The Faculty of Architecture's Co-op/I Program is designed to complement and enrich academic programs with work experience. The summer work terms provide students with practical experience, assistance in financing their education, and guidance for future career specialization.

This optional program is open to Faculty of Architecture students in good standing, in any option, who have completed 85 credit hours toward a University degree. This includes students in ED3/4, AMP1/2, and any Master's level.

This information session will provide an overview of the Co-op/I Program for students, including:

- Benefits & Responsibilities
- Eligibility
- Schedule (Application deadline: Nov. 1, 2019)
- Application Process
- Job Opportunities

The session will also include reflections and suggestions from students who successfully secured Co-op/I work terms in summer 2019.
