History Department, Faculty of Arts, University of Manitoba

HIST 2420 A02: The Medieval World

Dr. Meredith Bacola
118 St Paul’s College
Meredith.Bacola@umanitoba.ca

Classes are Tuesday and Thursday from 8:30 – 9:45 am
137 Isbister Building
Office hours are Monday and Wednesday 11:00 – 12:00 or by appointment

Course Objectives:

This course seeks to investigate aspects of decline and renewal within European society during the Middle Ages (between 300-1453 CE). Often remembered for its cathedrals and luminous manuscripts, bawdy humour or rampant disease, this period was a formative one in the growth of Western society.

It is through an introduction to the sources themselves that you will expand your knowledge of this historical period. A source may constitute anything from the past, including documents, artworks or buildings. Methodical examination and analysis of certain primary and secondary sources will expand your familiarity with the various ways in which the past can be interpreted by historians.

Developing an awareness of sources and interpretations of the Medieval World through lectures, assigned readings, class discussions, and independent essay assignments will provide you with the opportunity to develop critical thinking, speaking and writing skills.

Expectations:

Attending lectures, completing assigned readings and participating in class discussions are invaluable to both understanding the nuances and working through the challenges that can arise from interpreting historical sources. Students are therefore expected to actively listen to all class discussion and encouraged to take notes to retain facts and concepts. Students should be respectful of the time allocated for their success. Disruptive behaviours including lateness, leaving class, unrelated internet usage, or the use of cell phones are not welcome.

If you are experiencing any difficulties participating in class discussions or researching/writing your assignments, you are strongly encouraged to get in contact with me as soon as possible. I maintain office hours every week so that you can stop by with questions or concerns and can meet on other days/times by appointment. I can always be reached by email and will endeavour to respond within 24 hours.
The Faculty of Arts within the University of Manitoba has established regulations for academic offenses such as plagiarism, cheating and impersonation. You can familiarize yourself with the policies on academic integrity on the Arts website and below: http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student/student_responsibilities.html

The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC – for disciplinary action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty. The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication.

The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year (1) suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

It is therefore necessary to complete all assessments to the best of your own independent ability. If you attend lectures, take notes, complete assigned readings and ask for clarification when needed, then you will be able to succeed.

Required Texts:

Both of these texts will be made available for purchase in the bookstore and it is advised that you obtain copies in order to complete the weekly assigned readings outlined in the lecture schedule below. You will also be required on occasion to print out primary sources or journal articles that will be discussed in class.

Assignments & Essays:

Students will be assessed on their ability to apply approaches and interpretive frameworks introduced in the lectures, discussions and secondary readings to their own written assignments. Early in the term, one class will involve exploring the substantial resources of the University of Manitoba libraries and online databases followed, a week later, by your submission of a 6-8 item bibliography and proposal for the first essay. The objective of this process is for you to become familiar with the range of reading materials (scholarly journal articles, monographs or collections of essays) that constitute acceptable bibliographical sources and with the time commitment necessary for researching, writing and editing a successful essay. Essay topics will be distributed in class prior to the library class, though students wishing to explore an alternate topic within the scope of course material or timeline can have one approved by me at least 4 weeks prior to the essay deadline. Always ask for assistance if you need it.

Please note: It is your responsibility to complete and print your research assignment for submission by the start of class. No late assignments will be accepted without penalty (5%/day) unless the instructor can be provided with documentation of major illness or compassionate need. I reserve the right to refuse any late assignments or to deny extensions that are not addressed at least 1 week prior to the deadline.

Student Resources:

You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/ The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/). The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on two days of the week. More information about scheduling, etc. TBA.

All of the above services can also be accessed through this link: http://umanitoba.ca/student/saa/accessibility/student-resources.html

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, Kyle Feenstra, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/content.php?pid=219304

Exams:

The midterm examination will consist of short answer questions and source analysis in order for you to test your comprehension of the material covered since September. It will also provide you with the opportunity to apply approaches and investigative techniques learned in the lectures and assigned readings.

The final examination will be of similar format though based on everything covered in the course, including all lecture materials, assigned readings, and class discussions.
Evaluations:

Letter grades represent the following percentages in this course:

- A+ 90-99%
- A 80-89%
- B+ 75-79%
- B 70-74%
- C+ 65-69%
- C 60-64%
- D 50-59%
- F below 49%

A final grade for this course will be determined by the following assessments:

Constructive feedback will be regularly provided to students in the course of class discussions. For the essays, you will receive a copy of the written rubric outlining how your mark was reached and I would be willing to discuss these results in greater detail with you during office hours or by appointment. Students wishing extra clarification or who are experiencing difficulties with the process are strongly encouraged to meet with me at least 1 week prior to the deadline or exam date. You will therefore have received considerable feedback prior to the voluntary withdrawal (VW) date of March 18th 2016.

I am required to remind you that since this is a course that meets the University Senate's W requirement, students must pass the requirement for written English in order to pass the course. In other words, the minimum required is that students must complete the third essay assignment and one other essay assignment with a passing grade to pass the course. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them. Should you wish to appeal a grade, you are advised to do so as the term progresses rather than waiting until the end of the course because at that point you are only able to appeal the final exam grade. Any unclaimed term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction.
