I-COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will provide students with a broad overview of Latin American history from the nineteenth century to the present. The course will explore several major periods in modern Latin American history that correspond to major changes in the regional and world economies and resulting shifts in socio-political alignments: early independence (1820s-1850s), oligarchical liberalism and export capitalism (1860s-1920s), populism and national capitalism (1930s-1950s) and their crisis (1950s-1980s), neoliberalism (1990s), contemporary political and social movements and the left-turn (2000-2010s), and world crisis and contemporary realignments (2010s-present). For each period, the course will pay attention to several interrelated processes:
- the strategies adopted by the region for achieving social, economic, and political development.
- the roles and experiences of upper, middle, and lower classes of different gender and ethnic background in those strategies
- the location of Latin America within specific broader historical contexts and how it affected its pursuit of greater democracy and equality. In particular, it will pay attention to the influence of the United States in the region.

II-READINGS

The following texts are required for the course and are available for purchase at the University’ bookstore:

Additional copy-right free material (primary documents, articles, etc.) will be available online through UM Learn.

III-ASSIGNMENTS AND EVALUATION

The class will meet three times a week on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Two or three lectures (depending on topic and calendar) will be followed by a class devoted to discussion of the indicated assigned material. PLEASE NOTE that active participation is expected and ATTENDANCE FOR DISCUSSION SESSIONS IS MANDATORY. The final grade in the course will be the result of:

-Three papers of 4-5 pages (1000-1250 words each), worth 48% of the final grade (16% each)
-A final exam, worth 37%
-Attendance and participation, worth 15%

IMPORTANT: Since this is a course that meets the University Senate's W requirement, students must pass the requirement for written English in order to pass the course (this means that students must pass, with a D or a higher grade, the three assigned papers in order to pass the course). Please, take note that LATE PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. I will strictly follow the University’s regulations regarding plagiarism, cheating and impersonation found in the section on “Academic Integrity” of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar, and Catalog and the Faculty of Arts regulation (online at http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities.html) which reads:

The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty. The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication. The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

Evaluation of work will be provided by the voluntary withdrawal (VW) date, March 31\textsuperscript{st}, 2017. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them. Uncollected term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction.

\textbf{Student Resources}

You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): \url{http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/}. The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (\url{http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/}).

All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website: \url{http://umanitoba.ca/student/studentlife/index.html}.

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, Kyle Feenstra, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: \url{http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history}. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.
