I-Course description

Throughout its history, Latin America has presented conditions that led to several social revolutions, which deeply affected both national structures and the whole regional experience. Aimed at explaining why those social revolutions have taken place, the course focuses on the comparative study of five cases spanning from the late eighteenth to the twentieth centuries: St. Domingue/Haiti, Mexico, Cuba, Chile, and Nicaragua. The goal of the course is to identify similarities and differences among these cases through the exploration of:

1-The historical factors that led to revolution
2-The different strategies pursued by each revolutionary movement
3-The policies adopted by different revolutionary governments
4-The national and international forces that opposed those revolutions
5-The outcomes of each revolution
II-Assignments and evaluation

The class will meet three times a week, usually twice for lectures and once for discussion of assigned materials. Given that this is an upper-undergraduate course, active participation is expected, and attendance for discussion sessions is mandatory.

Students’ overall performance in the course will be evaluated as follows:

- Three 4/5-page (1000-1250 words) papers, worth 33% (11% each)
- One take-home final exam ten-page (2500 words) paper, worth 37% of the final grade
- Attendance and participation, worth 30% of the final grade.

All written assignments will require the theoretical and comparative analysis of one or more cases. Please note that late papers will not be accepted. Also, the instructor will strictly enforce the University’s regulations regarding plagiarism, cheating, and impersonation found in Section 8 of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar and Catalog, and the Faculty of Arts regulation (online at http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities_html), which reads:

The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty.

The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication.

The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

Evaluation of work will be provided by the voluntary withdrawal (VW) date, March 31st, 2017. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them. Uncollected term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction.

III-Readings

The following texts will be used in the course. They are available for purchase at the University bookstore and on reserve at the Dafoe library:

Additional readings indicated in the syllabus will be made available through UM Learn.

Student Resources

You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/. The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/).

All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website: http://umanitoba.ca/student/studentlife/index.html.

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, Kyle Feenstra, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.
