

LABOUR STUDIES NEWSLETTER

Labour Studies at the University of Manitoba

Meet and Greet Wednesday, March 11 3-5PM Cross Common Room St. John's College

Representatives from a range of organizations, some of whom have hosted Labour Studies field placement students and/or hired graduates of our program, will be there, so it will be an opportunity to get to know a bit about these organizations. After very brief presentations from our guests, there will be an informal reception with free food and drink so you'll be able to chat with the guests, fellow students and instructors. It's always a fun event, so please do come.

Guest Speaker from New York February 28 1PM 307 Tier

Longtime feminist organizer Kate Doyle Griffiths will be giving a talk for students on "The Four-Fold 'Feminization' of the Labour Process: Implications for Organizing and Politics." Their talk will examine how gendered changes in the world of work have shaped an emerging wave of worker and feminist struggle.

Presented by Labour Studies and Women's and Gender Studies.

Labour Studies Students' Association (LABSSA)

Last year a number of students revived the Labour Studies Students' Association. It's open to any student interested in fairness and equality in workplaces, not just students doing an Advanced Major, Major or Minor in Labour Studies. To find out about upcoming meetings and activities, just e-mail: labassa@umanitoba.ca

LABOUR STUDIES RESOURCE ROOM

All Labour Studies students and other students enrolled in a Labour Studies course are invited to use the Labour Studies Resource Room, 115 Isbister.

The resource room has a small library and is a quiet space for studying and reading. It's usually open at 9AM. If you find it locked, please ask Kyla Shead to open it for you.

NOTE: The books and other materials in the Labour Studies Resource Room are for use in the room only; they do not circulate. Please do not remove them from 115 Isbister.
