READING:

Karl Marx, Capital, Vol. 1. International Publishers, NY.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

To study Marx's Capital Volume I

ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Weekly 3-page essays on the reading assigned for that week. Of the 5 which will be assigned, students are expected to do 4 of them. (The first two, however, are compulsory) This will count for 50% of the final grade.
2. A final 10-page paper, (about 2500-3000 words), whose subject will be assigned two weeks before the final class and will be due for that class. This will count for 50% of the final grade.
3. In addition, students will be called upon to lead the discussion during part of the weekly seminar. Two students per week will be assigned this function; this will involve preparing questions and subjects for discussion.

No make-up or late assignments except for legitimate reasons.

NOTE: Academic Dishonesty:

University policy on academic integrity will be enforced. A full description of academic integrity matters, including plagiarism and cheating, can be found in Section 8 of the General Academic Regulations and Requirements of the University of Manitoba.

Unclaimed term work disposal:

Any term work that has not been claimed by students will be held for four (4) months from the end of the final examination period for the term in which the work was assigned. At the conclusion of this time, all unclaimed term work will become property of the Faculty of Arts and be destroyed according to FIPPA guidelines and using confidential measures for disposal.

Voluntary withdrawal deadline is November 18, 2015.
