Office: 301E Isbister Building
Office hours: 10:00-10:30 a.m.
(and by appointment)

Objectives of the course:

This course provides a focused analysis of women, crime and social justice. Drawing on feminist scholarship in the field, the course examines gender differences in crime, including the ways in which 'ideas' about gender-appropriate deviance shape the social response to rule-breaking. Specific attention will be paid to crime perpetrated against women and the histories/experiences of abuse among women offenders. This provides for an analysis of the experience and treatment of women in the criminal justice system as well as the new directions that feminist theory, research and practice suggests are more fruitful in understanding women, crime and social justice.

Required texts:

Balfour, G. and Comack, E. Criminalizing Women: Gender and Injustice in Neo-Liberal Times, Fernwood: Halifax: 2006.

Comack, E. Women in Trouble. Fernwood, Halifax: 1996.

Course requirements:

The final grade for the course will be based on the following:

- 1) In-Class Group Documentary Analysis (20%): Thursday, September 27.
- 2) Group Presentation (10%): To be scheduled
- 3) In-Class Test (30%): Thursday, October 18, 2007
- 4) Take home test (40% of final grade): due Tuesday, December 11, 2007 by noon.

Study questions for the in-class test and take home test will be distributed in advance. Requirements for both of the group exercises will be detailed in separate hand-outs.

Makeup tests and late assignments will not be considered unless appropriate documentation has been received.
