

Students should acquaint themselves with the University's policy on Academic dishonesty, including "Examinations: Personations" (section 4.2.8) and "Plagiarism and Cheating" (section 7.1) found in the Undergraduate Calendar. See also important information regarding appeals (section 5.1-5.3) The faculty of Arts also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism.

As indicated in the University calendar on pp 27, Students are expected to attend class and are strongly encouraged to complete the readings in advance of the lectures so that any problems, concerns or points of interest can be raised for discussion in class. Accordingly, the final grade distribution in this course may be raised or lowered to achieve this equity and, therefore, your final grade may be changed.

DISRUPTIONS: On the issue of politeness, please note that disturbances due to talking or early departures from the classroom are disruptive. Please be considerate and respectful of the needs and rights of others in the class. Students should be aware that inappropriate behavior and/or persistent disruption may result in disbarment from the course (cf. Student Discipline By-law, pp 24 of U of M Undergrad Calendar). Any student who has a legitimate reason for leaving the class early should inform the instructor at the beginning of class. It should also be noted that lap top computers may only be used for the purpose of taking notes; any other uses will result in this privilege being withdrawn. Cell phones are to be turned off during class, and text messaging is strictly prohibited.

CLASS SCHEDULE:

Please note that this is a tentative schedule providing a guide to the topics and approximate timelines. Accordingly, the schedule may be modified as we proceed and not all topics may be covered.
