Course Description/Objectives

We will undertake a systematic look at sociology as a distinctive discipline, with a focus on such areas of social life as culture, socialization, social stratification, gender, race and ethnicity, family, religion, population, and education. Students will acquire a basic understanding of society and social life and learn to appreciate the sociological perspective.

Required Texts

TEXT - Macionis, John J. and Linda M. Gerber. (2008). Sociology, 6th Canadian Edition. Scarborough: Pearson Education Canada.

Course Requirements

1. Term Tests #1, #2 and #3. Value: 30% each. See Course Schedule for dates of these tests. Each test will be some combination of multiple choice questions and short answer questions. Each test will cover readings from the text, lectures, movies shown, class discussions and handouts.
2. Test 4. Value: 10%. This test will be multiple choice questions only.

 Please note that all tests are non-cumulative.

Course Policies

1. ALL course requirements must be completed in order to receive a passing grade in this course.
2. Missed tests cannot be taken at a later date, unless a valid medical certificate is provided within 2 days of the scheduled test.
3. Students are responsible for all material presented in class and in the text.
4. Students cheating on a test will receive a "0" for the test and the Dept. Head will be notified to determine if further action is warranted.
5. If a student wishes to withdraw from the course, it is their responsibility to do so. The deadline for Voluntary Withdrawal is August 8th, 2008.
6. Although the chapters on the Course Schedule will be covered in the order that they appear, I may exceed, restrict, or omit individual sections to facilitate smoother course delivery.
7. Students with special needs (e.g., learning, hearing, sight, or physical) should discuss with me how I might make the learning environment more comfortable.
8. The university and I recognize and respect the right of all students to observe holidays of their faith, which fall within the academic year. Please notify me in advance of any such intended absence.
9. University of Manitoba Senate Policy #1307 requires "a post examination review of final grades in multi-sectioned courses that will ensure an equitable correspondence between grades and level of performance in all sections."
10. Students should acquaint themselves with the University's policy on "Examinations: Personations" (section 4.2.8) and "Plagiarism and Cheating" (section 7.1) found in the Undergraduate calendar. The Faculty of Arts reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites to detect plagiarism.
