OBJECTIVES AND CONTENT:

The objective of this course is to introduce students to the sociological perspective. Students will develop a critical insight into the central aspects of our society and the ways in which the individual and society are interrelated. Throughout the course, we will explore topics and issues in such areas as culture, socialization, crime, inequality, and social institutions. The general objective of this course is to develop a more critical understanding of our society as well as to introduce students to the various areas of sociology.

COURSE EVALUATION

Final grades will be based on the following:

- 1) Five multiple choice tests (80%)
- 2) Participation (20%)

Tests will be written during regular class times. With the exception of the last test, the lowest test mark will be dropped. Because only four of the tests will be included in your final grade, NO provision will be made for missed tests in most cases.

Test 1	Oct. 19	20%
Test 2	Nov. 16	20%
Test 3	Jan. 15	20%
Test 4	Mar. 1	20%
Test 5*	April 7	20% *This test must be written

*Note: The above dates are subject to change. In the unlikely event of a date change, students will be informed well ahead in class and also via the angel website.

Tests are not cumulative. Students are responsible for all assigned readings, lecture material, class discussions and video presentations. The tests will consist of multiple choice questions.

Class Participation

Participation will include both participation in class and some written work. Class participation may involve the use of 'clickers' to answer questions. The questions may take the form of quizzes, or general opinions. Written work will involve writing a short paragraph on specific questions or giving your views on topics or films presented in class. These may involve working in groups.

Students who are absent will NOT be able to make up the work. However, since there will be a number of participation exercises, it will be possible to miss a few exercises without penalty.

Missed Videos

If you miss a video, it is your responsibility to view it at an alternate time. You will need a form which is available at Information Services and Technology, 123 Fletcher Argue.

LETTER GRADES

The following letter/percentage scale will be used:

A+	= 90-100 %	C+	= 66-69-%
A	= 80-89 %	C	= 60-65%
B+	= 76-79 %	D	= 50-59%
B	= 70-75 %	F	= 49% or less

Students should note that these are guidelines only, and that different percentage cut-offs may be used, depending on the final grade distribution.

Senate Policy #1307 requires "a post-examination review of final grades in multi-sectioned courses that will ensure an equitable correspondence between grades and level of performance in all sections. Accordingly, the final grade distribution in this course may be raised or lowered to achieve such equity and, therefore, your final grade may be changed.

*NOTE: The last day for voluntary withdrawal is March 19th, 2010.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students should acquaint themselves with the university's policy on Personation at Examinations: (section 4.2.8) and Plagiarism and Cheating' (Section 7.1) found in the Undergraduate Calendar. The faculty of Arts also reserves the right to submit work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism.

The university acknowledges the right of all students to observe recognized Holy Days of their faith which fall within the academic year. The instructor should be notified in writing of a student's intended absence in advance, and at least three weeks notice should normally be given where special arrangements are sought.

DISRUPTIONS

Disruptions due to excessive talking or early departures from the classroom are especially distracting to large classes. Please be considerate and respectful of the needs and rights of others in the class. Students should be aware that any persistent disruption may result in disbarment from the course. Any student who has a legitimate reason for leaving class early should inform the instructor at the beginning of class.

OTHER

Students with special learning needs (who for legitimate reasons require extra time to write a test, or who require aids or other supports) should identify themselves to the instructor at the beginning of the term in order to arrange suitable accommodation

Come to the lectures and study! There will be no options for improving your grade after all of the tests have been written.
