

Course description for:
Physical Methods of Euthanasia Wet Lab: Rodents

Instructor: Animal Health Technician

Session Dates: Once a month

Session Length: 2 hours with follow up as required

Who Should Attend: All students and researchers who need to learn how to perform a physical method of euthanasia on a rodent for their research project.

Prerequisite: Animal User Training Course or equivalent, Facility Orientation, Rat or Mouse Wet Lab: Introduction

Training Session Objectives:

1. To identify the emotional impact physical methods of euthanasia may have on personnel.
2. To indicate the need for justification for use at the time of protocol submission.
3. To identify acceptable methods of physical euthanasia in rodents and how to perform them.
4. To become competent performing the required method of euthanasia.

Min/Max # of People: 1 to 2

Room required: Technical room